THE FRANCISCAN CENTER ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

The Franciscan Center, a comprehensive, nonprofit emergency outreach agency located in Charles Village, is pleased to announce a new slate of officers and welcome new board members:

Board Chair Tom Phelan is president and CEO of the Injured Workers' Insurance Fund (IWIF).

Vice Chair Vince Oakley is director of field service at Northrop Grumman Corp.

Treasurer Marjorie Edmonds is the vice president of Progressive Therapy.

Secretary Lorraine Mildred Godfrey is manager of computer technology for the Enoch Pratt Free Library.

Additional new board members include:

Keith Bailey works with the U.S. Department of Labor for OSHA.

Gregory Burke is employed by UPS Logistics Technologies.

Thomas Carney is an HIV/AIDS case manager at Johns Hopkins University.

Sister Ellen Carr, OSF, led the Franciscan Center's 1998 capital campaign.

Daniel D'Orazio is the director of corporate development at Sage Growth Partners.

John Dougherty is a partner at DLA Piper, US LLP, and co-chair of the Patent Litigation Practice Group.

Carolyn Edmonds is deputy director and grants specialist at the Maryland Department of Human Resources.

Scott Foley is a partner of the Financial Services Group at Shapiro Sher Guinot & Sandler.

Carole Gibison is program officer for the Marion I. & Henry J. Knott Foundation.

Barbara Laukaitis, a longtime volunteer at the Center, presents spiritual workshops for Spirit Care.

Sister Anita Smith, OSF, has been a pastoral associate at St. Edwards Church for over 20 years.

Kevin Wille is the first vice president of the Baltimore office of CB Richard Ellis.

The Franciscan Center was founded in 1968 by the Franciscan Sisters of Baltimore, a religious order that has fed the city's hungry since the 1890s. The Center serves the needy regardless of age, race, creed or national origin.
